Introduction

The Remuneration Report of Joint Stock Company “Latvijas Jūras medicīnas centrs” (hereinafter – the Company) for 2022 is prepared according to the remuneration policy to members of the Board and Council approved by the decision of the Company’s Shareholders Meeting of 30 November 2020, which is developed on the basis of Directive (EU) 2017/828 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 17 May 2017 as regards the encouragement of long-term shareholder engagement, as well as according to Article 59<sup>3</sup> of the Financial Instrument Market Law, which introduces the directive.

The Remuneration Report is prepared by the Board and reviewed by the Council of the Company. The Remuneration Report is reviewed and approved by the Shareholders’ Meeting alongside other parts of the Annual Report. According to the Audit Services Law of the Republic of Latvia, a sworn auditor is under the obligation to provide an opinion on whether the information referred to in Section 59.<sup>4</sup> of the Financial Instrument Market Law has been included in the Remuneration Report and whether significant non-conformities have been established in the Remuneration Report in relation to the financial information presented in the Annual Report.

The Remuneration Report is published concurrently with the audited annual report of the Company as a separate part of the annual report in Latvian and English on the Company’s website: in section “Remuneration Report”, as well as on the Nasdaq Riga website: <http://www.nasdaqbaltic.com>.

Remuneration to the Board and Council

As the variable part of remuneration is linked to net sales, it works as an incentive for the Board to drive the Company's growth.

Shares or share options were not granted and offered to members of the Board and Council.

No variable part of remuneration was reclaimed from members of the Board and Council.

There were no cases of applying temporary derogations from the remuneration policy.

Section 59<sup>4</sup>, paragraph one, point 3 of the Financial Instrument Market Law requires to report, in a comparable manner, changes that took place in the last five financial years in remuneration paid to members of the Board and Council, performance of the company and average remuneration on a full-time equivalent basis of employees of the company other than members of the Board and Council.

In accordance with Paragraph 66 of the Transitional Provisions of the Financial Instrument Market Law, a comparison of the changes referred to in Section 59<sup>4</sup>, paragraph one, Clause 3 of the Law is provided for at least the period of the last five financial years beginning not later than 1 January 2020.

Remuneration to the Board and Council has not changed significantly during the last 5 years, performance of the company matches its strategic goals, average remuneration on a full-time equivalent basis of employees of the company has increased in line with the overall trends of the labour market.
